

Senator Jeff Chapman

Senate District 3

Elected to his first term in the Georgia Senate in 2004, Sen. Jeff Chapman represents the Third Senate District, which covers the five counties of Brantley, Camden, Charlton, Glynn, and McIntosh.

Sen. Chapman has been appointed to serve as vice-chairman of the Senate Veterans, Military and Homeland Security Committee and secretary of the Senate Public Safety Committee. He also serves on the Natural Resources and Environment and Insurance and Labor committees.

In addition, he has been appointed to several Senate Study Committees including: the Jasper Port Study Committee, the Coastal Georgia Sound Science Initiative Study Committee, and the Security for State and County Buildings Study Committee. He also was selected to serve on the Environmental Task Force of the Council of State Governments (CSG), a national forum for state leaders to examine policy issues and identify effective legislative solutions. The Environmental Task Force priorities include water quality, water supply management, air quality, and renewable energy.

Jeff Chapman is a pro-life, business, and family-focused conservative who believes in Constitutional freedoms and limited government.

Twice elected to the Glynn County Commission, Jeff Chapman is an experienced government leader. He is the founder and former owner of Chapman Waste Disposal. He also co-owns of Glyndale Waste Services, Inc. with his wife Angela Prescott Chapman.

Sen. Chapman holds three patents from the United States Patent and Trademark Office and is a former member of the Board of Directors of Keep Brunswick-Golden Isles Beautiful and the Brunswick-Golden Isles Homebuilders Association. He has served in the Georgia Air National Guard and is a member of the Brunswick Exchange Club and Lakeside Methodist Church. He is the recipient of the McGarvey Sisters Preservation Hero Award for his work to preserve the historic grounds of the Glynn County Courthouse.

For his service in the Republican Party, the freshman senator received the George Jacobus Glynn County Republican Volunteer of the Year Award. He was also voted Man of the People by the Glynn County Republican Party. Sen. Chapman and his wife Angela have been married 25 years and have two children, Lauren, age 21, and Lyndon, age 12.

January 2009